Mantic Companion App Code: TBC

HOBBY

Armies must be representative and not heavily proxied. It should be clear to any player what the unit is intended to be within the list and clearly look like it belongs.

If you have any queries or uncertainty about your army or particular units meeting these criteria, please contact the TO in advance.

Players are encouraged to bring fully painted and based armies. However if you are a new player and can't get your army painted in time, don't stress.

15 Tournament points will be on offer for having a fully painted and based army.

SPORTS

Players will be asked to vote for their favourite opponent after the final round. Players will earn 5 points for each favourite opponent vote they receive, for a total of up to 15 Tournament points.

TERRAIN

Games will be played on 6' x 4' tables.

Each table will have a different terrain setup and a map will be supplied for each. Players are encouraged to check the terrain matches the map at the start of each round.

Terrain Type	Height
Hills	3
Blocking	8
Forests	10
Obstacles	2	Never block line of sight
Flat (fields/ponds)	See below	Difficult

iii. FLAT TERRAIN P28

Flat (usually Difficult) terrain does not have a height value and is treated the same as open ground for the purposes of Line of Sight and establishing if a unit is an Obscured Target. Flat Difficult terrain is counted as height 1 for the purposes of checking if a unit is a Concealed Target.

SCENARIOS

Scenarios will be selected by the TO and remain hidden until the start of the event. Players are advised to bring their own objective makers.

SCHEDULE

All rounds must be played using a chess clock. If a player runs out of time on their clock, they must finish their current game action (EG finish the current combat & roll the nerve test). If their opponent still has time (and turns) to play, they may continue to do so. Victory conditions are worked out as normal when both players have concluded their allotted turns.

Round timings in the schedule below will be strictly adhered to so the event ends on time. Once the round timer ends, players will be asked to complete the current phase they are in before dice down. Players may continue playing into the lunch break if they wish to finish their remaining turns.
